PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Director, Office of Dispute Settlement
N.J. Department of the Public Defender
Trenton, NJ 1988-Present

Director of nationally recognized state dispute resolution office which mediates the most complex civil cases for the state and federal courts in New Jersey. Personally served as court-appointed mediator in over 1,000 cases and settled claims in excess of $1 billion. Designed and implemented cutting-edge mediation programs to address specific classes of cases. Received national award for mediating cases in the public interest.

Significant cases mediated include:

- *$500 million environmental insurance coverage dispute between a Fortune 500 company and 40 of its insurance carriers;
- *$100 million federal class action lawsuit involving the proposed demolition of all high-rise public housing in Newark, N.J.;
- *$100 million lawsuit between the state of New Jersey and two Fortune 500 companies regarding the construction of a light rail line;
- *$25 million contract dispute between a major medical center and insurance company impacting on the health care coverage of thousands of people;
- *$10 million litigation between a Fortune 500 company and multiple state and federal agencies regarding the clean-up of a major oil spill in the waters between New York and New Jersey.
